The Bahá'í Intercalary Days

The Intercalary Days (or Ayyám-i-Há, meaning "Days of Há") are the days of preparation before the Bahá'í Fast (March 1-19); these are days of hospitality, enjoyment, gift-giving, charity, and paying special attention to the needs of others, our communities and the world.

The Ayyám-i-Há Celebration is lovingly sponsored by the Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of Pittsfield Township.
